W. S. Bradwell Esq

Dear Sir

You will permit me to call your attention to J. W. M. Jones note, as you know I traded the note in part payment for Negroes: this note was collected at maturity & I was told on the note had to pay twenty one hundred thirty five dollars. $2135.65 I have tried every way to collect the note & have failed. had to pay last week the rise of $4000— on a note given for Negroes before the war. I do not wish to put you to any expense or trouble about this note. Come down and we will fix up the matter (I think, Truly Yours
